

Enfield find it tough

ALTHOUGH Enfield are one of only two unbeaten clubs in Division One of the Rothmans Isthmian League, they are still level with Wycombe Wanderers who have lost three times this season. Enfield, who have played one fewer game, have nine points. The teams meet tomorrow (Saturday) at Southbury Road.

Last year's champions have won two and drawn three so far, beating Walthamstow away 1-0 and Bishop's Stortford 1-0 at home. The draws were against Woking 1-1, Slough 1-1 and Ilford 1-1. The last result was something of a surprise as Ilford has lost their five previous games and were pointless at the foot of the table.

But things have not been going smoothly for Enfield. They have still to find the right blend and goals have been at a premium. Former Wycombe favourite Keith Searle has yet to score in a league game and was dropped to substitute on Tuesday. New signings Eddië Reeve and John Bishop from Hillingdon Borough have four goals apiece including friendlies.

Enfield have almost the same squad as last year. As well as the Hillingdon pair, Tony Gibson has returned from Ilford while Mark Wright is on a month's trial from Millwall. The only players to leave are Phil Fry (Barking) and Dave Lawrence (Leytonstone).

After their encouraging 2-1 win at Southall on Monday, Wanderers are unlikely to change the side for tomorrow's visit to Southbury Road. George Cleery may come in for Dylan Evans but John Maskell is still out of action after his injury against Tooting.
